

“Supporting Independent Living”

Personalised support services to enable disabled and older people to live in their own homes and add quality to their lives

“It was such a sense of relief when I found out there were choices other than the residential or day care route”.

“Supporting Independent Living”

Independent living is about a disabled or older person having the right to make choices about where, how and with whom they live, regardless of age, impairment or how much support is needed.

SIL is a unique organisation which helps anyone of any age and any disability in need of home support to receive that support in the way they prefer. SIL offers a range of options for personalised home support which can be bought using personal budget

Benefits of using SIL:

- SIL is a non-profit organisation and our surpluses are re-invested in improving and developing our services
- A fully comprehensive service
- High levels of service user satisfaction
- Value for money
- Excellent track record of delivery

What our service users say:

"It is better than any cover I have had before. I don't have to be on the phone for hours worrying about cover - the support was excellent".

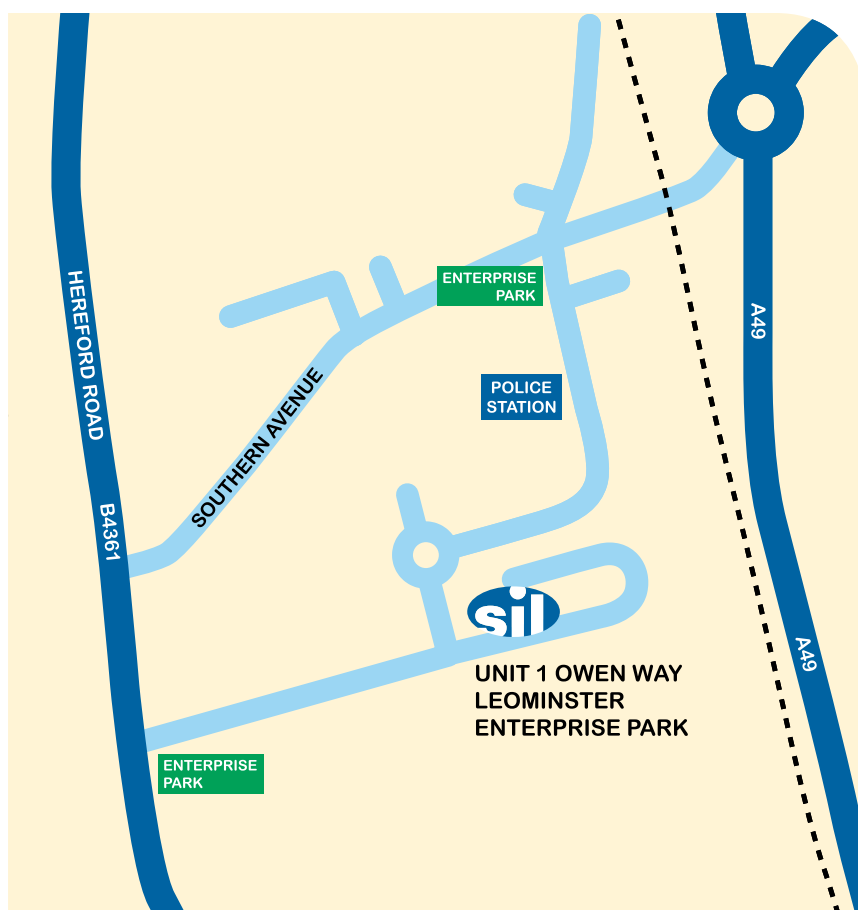

The SIL service is invaluable - thank you".

SIL Guiding Principles

- Respect for all
- Equality for all
- Improve through innovation and creativity
- Use the skills of disabled people and family carers
